Project Status Summary
Project is somewhere between green and yellow state. Things need to pick up significantly in the coming week, and they will. Team members, including myself will have to accept that free time/sleeping will be reduced in the next few weeks. Distractions, including the current war will have to be pushed aside and focus needs to be primarily placed on this project.

Managing Issues and Risk

Issues/Problems	Resolution Strategy	Due Date
Time wasted due to members' personal issues coupled with state of affairs, including mediocre management by TL.	Ignore the situation as much as possible, focus on the work, sleep less and accept that free time will have to be put aside until the project is done. As Team lead, I will have to emphasize to entire team, as well as commit myself to a far more stringent set of rules, including implementing time-boxing for tasks assigned.	April 1st 2022

Upcoming Risks	Risk Ranking (Hi, Med, Low)	Risk Impact (Hi, Med, Low)	Mitigation Strategy
Morale dropping	Hi	Hi	Get over it, and get to work.
